Alabama	No requirements
Alaska	Lawyers must notify clients in writing if they don't have coverage or if coverage is less than $100K per claim and $300K per aggregate.
Arizona	No requirements to carry coverage or to notify clients as to insurance status. However, lawyers must certify whether covered.
Arkansas	No requirements
California	No insurance requirement. Lawyers must notify clients whether they are covered.
Colorado	No requirements to carry coverage or to notify clients as to insurance status. However, lawyers must certify whether covered.
Connecticut	No requirements
Delaware	No requirements to carry coverage or to notify clients as to insurance status. However, lawyers must certify whether covered.
Florida	No requirements to carry coverage or to notify clients as to insurance status. However, lawyers must certify whether covered.
Georgia	No requirements
Hawaii	No requirements to carry coverage or to notify clients as to insurance status. However, lawyers must certify whether covered.
Idaho	Lawyers must carry insurance, minimums of $100,000 per occurrence and $300,000 as an annual aggregate
Illinois	No insurance requirement. Lawyers must report whether they carry coverage. Lawyers who do not have coverage must complete a four-hour interactive, online assessment of the operations of their firm
Indiana	No requirements. By state law, all LLCs & partnerships must carry insurance.
Iowa	No requirements
Kansas	No requirements to carry coverage or to notify clients as to insurance status. However, lawyers must certify whether covered.
Kentucky	No requirements
Louisiana	No requirements
Maine	No requirements to carry coverage or to notify clients as to insurance status. However, lawyers must certify whether covered.
Maryland	No requirements

Massachusetts	No requirements to carry coverage or to notify clients as to insurance status. However, lawyers must certify whether covered.
Michigan	No requirements
Minnesota	Lawyers in private practice must disclose whether they carry professional liability insurance and the name of the provider.
Mississippi	No requirements
Missouri	No requirements
Montana	No requirements. But must carry insurance in order to participate in bar association's lawyer referral service.
Nebraska	No requirements to carry coverage or to notify clients as to insurance status. However, lawyers must certify whether covered.
Nevada	No requirements to carry coverage or to notify clients as to insurance status. However, lawyers must certify whether covered.
New Hampshire	Lawyers must notify clients in writing if they don't have coverage or if coverage is less than $100K per claim and $300K per aggregate.
New Jersey	Not mandated for private practitioners. By state law, LLCs must carry $100k (multiplied by No. of Attorneys). Required to register evidence of the coverage carried.
New Mexico	Lawyer must inform clients if lawyer lack coverage or if their coverage is less than $100/$300k
New York	No requirements
North Carolina	No requirements to carry coverage or to notify clients as to insurance status. However, lawyers must certify whether covered.
North Dakota	No requirements
Ohio	Lawyers must notify clients in writing if they don't have coverage or if coverage is less than $100K per claim and $300K per aggregate.
Oklahoma	No requirements
Oregon	Required to carry $300k through State Bar's Professional Liability Fund (PLF)
Pennsylvania	Lawyers must notify clients if they carry less than $100/$300 (or if coverage drops below this at any time)
Rhode Island	Must disclose on annual registration. By state law, must have insurance if formed as a corporation, LLP, or LLC.
South Carolina	No requirements

South Dakota	Disclosure required on letterhead if lawyers have no malpractice insurance of if coverage is less than $100k per claim
Tennessee	No requirements
Texas	LLPs are required to have $100k if they do not set aside this amount to satisfy judgements. Otherwise, No requirements to carry or inform clients
Utah	No requirements
Vermont	No requirements.
Virginia	No requirements to carry coverage or to notify clients as to insurance status. However, lawyers must certify whether covered.
Washington	No requirements to carry coverage or to notify clients as to insurance status. However, lawyers must certify whether covered
West Virginia	Lawyers must notify state bar whether covered. By state law, PLLCs must carry coverage.
Wisconsin	No requirements
Wyoming	No requirements